A GROUP OF DAIRYMEN AND FARMERS DISCUSS LOCAL DAIRY PROBLEMS.

About thirty dairy farmers and milk dealers met in the County Court room Saturday afternoon and discussed the milk situation as it is affected by the local conditions. Some of the farmers rear here have not found a ready market for their milk and they are complaining against the Experiment Station bringing the surplus milk to this city and supplying certain regular customers. Supt. Snyder was there and told those present that the Station had started setting its surplus milk here because there had been a milk shortage and it was not thought right to waste quantities of milk at the State Farm when people here in North Platte could not purchase what was needed. This condition has prevailed here at various times during the past few years. None of the farmers wanted to start new delivery systems over the residence portion of the city and it was suggested that some central station could be equipped to handle the milk from the farmers and this central station could work out a system of economical distribution which would be to the advantage of the producer and the consumer alike.

It was shown by reports from other places that dairymen in this locality are getting as much as, or in some cases a little more for their product than in other places and that there should be no complaint as to price. It was also stated that the State Farm is not cutting the prices or underbidding the local dairymen. However some maintained that Experimental Station is a state supported institution and that it should not come into competition with the local farmers and dairymen. This matter is being worked out by those interested and promises an early and satisfactory settlement.

A committee consisting of Messrs Warren Doolittle, Harry Williams and Harry Huckfeldt was appointed to confer regarding the possibilities of stabilizing the industry by establishing a central depot for distribution and it deemed advisable at any time, to call another meeting of the dairymen. The meeting adjourned when someone said it was time to get to milking.

REUNION OF OLD FRIENDS

FORMER NORTH PLATTE CITIZENS HOLD PICNIC IN CALIFORNIA.

The following clipping from the Long Beach (Cal.) Daily Telegram tells of the annual picnic on Sunday, March 6th at Bixby Park.

With close to 300 persons present, the North Platte, Neb. picnic at Bixby Park Sunday proved to be the banner event in the history of the North Platte Society of Southern California.

According to Milton Doolittle, the picnic was attended by former North Platte folk from all parts of the southland.

Not since the society was organized has it ever had any officers. The members assemble each year for the outing, where old friendships are renewed and events that occurred in the "old home town" are discussed with much pleasure.

Assembling shortly before noon last Sunday, the former North Platte residents, after greeting old friends, began their preparations for the basket dinner that was served. The dinner was a typical outing repast, consisting of goodies whose very appearance whetted the appetite of the picnickers.

Noted as the city where Buffalo Bill started his Wild West show, and as one of the main division points on the Union Pacific line, North Platte each year sends to Southern California a quota of tourists who return to their homes with only pleasant remembrances of the land of sunshine and flowers. At the outing Sunday a number of North Platte tourists were present and their reunion with former neighbors and acquaintances proved a most delightful one.

It is estimated that the number present Sunday was more than double the attendance at any previous North Platte picnic.

Heretofore North Platte picnics have been held in Los Angeles. Because of the enthusiastic efforts made by former North Platters residing in Long Beach, the annual outing this year was held at Bixby park.

NEW BUSINESS FIRM OPENS

TWO NORTH PLATTE BUSINESS MEN FORM PARTNERSHIP AND BUY FILLION SHOP.

The C. & S. Company is the name of the latest venture upon the business life of this community. The partnership takes its name from that of its owners. They are Frank Sullivan and W. S. Cheney. These men have purchased the stock and tools that formerly belonged to the late Joseph Fillion and have taken possession of the shop which bore his name so long. It is located at 11 E. Fifth St.

Mr. Sullivan has been a resident of North Platte for a number of years and has been engaged in the plumbing business in connection with different firms at various times during these years. He is well known here and has many friends. Mr. Cheney came here to take a partnership in the Management of the Hotel McCabe but on account of the indoor work was compelled to relinquish that place and take up employment where he would be out of doors more. He is a specialist in various kinds of repairing and understands tinning and metal work. The firm will make a specialty of plumbing, heating and general repairs. It takes a certain kind of grit to invest in a new business during these times and we cannot but expect that anyone who possesses this grit will succeed.
